Charles Ivie,

NO. C 07-03717 JW

Plaintiff,

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT WITH PREJUDICE FOR LACK OF

v.

U.S. Government, et al., Walt Fogel-edde, Canada Nostrum
Defendants.

here is prosecution*

On October 10, 2007, the assigned Magistrate Judge Richard Seeborg issued an Order recommending that this case be dismissed. (Docket Item No. 6.) On October 19, 2007, the Court dismissed Plaintiff's Complaint for failure to state a claim. (Docket Item No. 10.) In light of Plaintiff's pro se status, the Court granted Plaintiff leave to amend the Complaint to state a cognizable claim. The Court gave Plaintiff until November 19, 2007 to amend his Complaint. To date, the Court has not received the Amended Complaint nor any communication from Plaintiff. Accordingly, the Court raises, sua sponte, the issue of whether Plaintiff's action should be dismissed for lack of prosecution.

A district court has the authority to dismiss a case for lack of prosecution pursuant to its inherent authority and Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. See Link v. Wabash R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962); Hamilton Copper & Steel Corp. v. Primary Steel, Inc., 898 F.2d 1428 (9th Cir. 1990). Rule 41(b) states in pertinent part: "For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against the defendant. . . . [A] dismissal under this subdivision . . . operates as an adjudication upon the merits." Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). "This power is necessary to prevent undue delay in the disposition of pending cases, docket congestion, and, the possibility of harassment of a defendant." Medeiros v. U.S., 621 F.2d 468, 470 (1st Cir. 1980).

In determining whether to dismiss for lack of prosecution, generally the court considers: (1) the public's interest in expeditious resolution of litigation, (2) the court's need to manage its docket, (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants, (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits, and (5) the availability of less drastic sanctions. Hernandez v. City of El Monte, 138 F.2d 393, 399 (9th Cir. 1998) (internal quotations omitted); See also Al-Torki v. Kaempfen, 78 F.3d 1381, 1384 (9th Cir. 1996). The Ninth Circuit will affirm dismissal where at least four factors support dismissal, or where at least three factors "strongly" support dismissal. Yourish v. Cal.

Amplifier, 191 F.2d 983, 990 (9th Cir. 1999). Further, sua sponte dismissal requires a "close focus" on consideration of "less drastic alternatives" and whether or not there has been a "warning of imminent dismissal of the case." Oliya v. Sullivan, 958 F.2d 272, 274 (9th Cir. 1992).

In its October 19 Order, rather than dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint with prejudice, the Court considered less drastic alternatives. However, the Court specifically noted that if Plaintiff did not amend within the allotted time, "the action will be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure." (Id.) It has been eleven days since Plaintiff's deadline passed, and he has not filed an Amended Complaint. The Court had liberally construed Plaintiff's Complaint as one asserting potential civil rights claims. As previously dated by the Court, generally, in Section 1983 cases, delay itself is prejudicial because witness memories fade and evidence becomes stale or undiscoverable.

Accordingly, the Court finds good cause to DISMISS Plaintiff's action with prejudice for lack of prosecution.

and you wish to travel to Canada or apply for any type of visa to Canada, i.e. Work Permit, Study Permit, Permanent Residence etc... You must first apply for Criminal Rehabilitation or for a Temporary Resident Permit before completing any other application. (Please visit www.losangeles.gc.ca for further information on approval of criminal Rehabilitation)

If you were convicted of an offence outside Canada

If you have an urgent and compelling reason for travel to Canada in the near future and you are not considered Deemed Rehabilitated and/or not eligible to apply for Criminal Rehabilitation (please visit www.losangeles.gc.ca for further information on approval of Rehabilitation), you may apply for a Temporary Resident Permit to overcome the criminal inadmissibility. Leisure travel and tourism are not considered urgent and compelling reasons to warrant issuance of a Temporary Resident Permit.

Minor offenses (commonly equivalent to misdemeanors in the USA), such as petty theft, simple assault, or simple possession of a controlled substance, would render an individual criminally inadmissible to Canada. Also, driving while under the influence (DUI / DWI) is regarded as an indictable offence in Canada, and persons with convictions for this offence are also considered inadmissible to Canada. Although Canada is similar to other countries in preventing the admission of convicted offenders, Canada does make provision to allow people with criminal records into Canada under certain circumstances.

The visa office in Los Angeles only accepts applications for Temporary Resident Permits from current residents of the following states: Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Kansas, New Mexico, Nevada, Oklahoma, Texas and Utah.

If you have ever been convicted of, or committed a criminal offence in any country, you may be inadmissible to Canada as a result of your criminal activity. Even if you do not ordinarily require a visa to enter Canada, you may still be refused permission to enter Canada if you are a member of an inadmissible class.

RE: Criminal History Record
CII# A08290314

Dear Mr. Ivie:

This letter is in response to our receipt of what appears to be a second claim of inaccuracy or incompleteness, regarding your California state summary criminal history record as maintained by the Bureau of Criminal Identification & Information (BCII). The BCII is required, pursuant to California Penal Code section 11105(a)(2), to record specific arrest, disposition, and personal identification information when reported by a law enforcement agency or court of this state. This information can only be modified or deleted at the direction of the contributing agency or by order of the court having jurisdiction. I will attempt to answer your concerns in the order in which they appear on your criminal history record.

1. The name "Charles Everett Ivey" was reported to the BCII on the arrest fingerprint card that was submitted by the Seaside Police Department on September 6, 1986.
2. The notation "DOB/19511101", represents a date of birth, November 1, 1951, that was reported to the BCII on the arrest fingerprint card submitted by the Monterey County Sheriff's Office on June 10, 2003.
3. The notation "OCC/Laborer", represents an occupation that was reported by the Seaside Police Department on their fingerprint submission of September 6, 1986.

The BCII does not claim that this information is your true name, date of birth, or occupation. The BCII only contends that this information was submitted on documents that bore your fingerprint impressions. By law, this information must be recorded.

4. The BCII has in its possession a fingerprint card, dated September 6, 1986 (19860906), submitted by the Seaside Police Department. This card bears fingerprint impressions that have been verified as belonging to you. This card reflects that you were fingerprinted and booked on that day, on a charge of Penal Code section 647(b), prostitution. The case was finalized on January 15, 1987

The BCII has in its possession a fingerprint card, dated June 10, 2003 (20040610), submitted by the Monterey County Sheriff's Office. This card bears fingerprint impressions that have been verified as belonging to you. A "Disposition of Arrest and Court Action" form was submitted to the BCII by the Monterey County Superior Court in cases "MS190928A" & "MS214956A." These forms reported that a charge of Vehicle Code section 20001 was dismissed in case "MS190928A", and you were convicted in case "MS214956A", of a misdemeanor charge of

The BCII has in its possession a fingerprint card, dated October 26, 1993 (19931026), submitted by the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office. This card bears fingerprint impressions that have been verified as belonging to you. A "Disposition of Arrest and Court Action" form was submitted to the BCII by the Santa Clara Superior Court in case "168628." This form reported that the charge against you was dismissed.

The BCII has in its possession a fingerprint card, dated October 14, 1993 (19931014), submitted by the Monterey County Sheriff's Office. This card bears fingerprint impressions that have been verified as belonging to you. This card reflects that you were fingerprinted and booked on that day, on a warrant that was valid at the time of your arrest. A "Disposition of Arrest and Court Action" form was submitted to the BCII by the King City Municipal Court in case "MK050842A." This form reported that you were convicted of a misdemeanor charge of section 148.9(a).

The BCII has in its possession a fingerprint card, dated May 30, 1993 (19930530), submitted by the Monterey County Sheriff's Office. This card bears fingerprint impressions that have been verified as belonging to you. This card reflects that you were fingerprinted and booked on that day, on a charge of Penal Code section 148.9(a), giving false identification to a peace officer.

The entry dated January 12, 1989 (19890112), represents the submission of your fingerprints by the California Bureau of Collection & Investigative Services as part of a background check for licenser by that agency.

The entry dated June 24, 1987 (19870624), represents the submission of your fingerprints by the California Department of Insurance as part of a background check for licenser by that agency. On December 27, 2003 (20031227) the Dept. of Insurance notified the BCII that they were no longer interested in receiving subsequent arrest information on you.

The final outcome (19870115) in the Monterey Municipal Court in case "12461". The final outcome was that the charge of prostitution was dismissed, and you plead no contest to a charge of Penal Code section 415, disturbing the peace by fighting, or making loud noise, or by uttering offensive words in public.

11. The "No Arrest Received" entry dated October 14, 1993, has been connected to the entry of October 26, 1993. The no arrest received entry has been removed from your criminal history record. An amended copy of your California state summary criminal history record is enclosed.
